

Welcome to our 2015 catalogue

We would like to highlight some innovations in our new catalogue in short titles:

We have designed and produced the diary bag models, a first of their kind.

We have improved the Special box series and created more than eleven varieties.

We have applied a multi-material combination method to the Special box series, as well as to wallets and cardholders.

Our variety of models has increased to more than eighty models.

We have prepared the catalogue with the slogan "choose your color," as we did last year.

Any kind of response, comment, or feedback is appreciated and helpful for making our future models and catalogues.

Hope to see you in 2016.
